

Put the Brakes on Fast Food!

On an average day, one-third of children in the U.S. eat fast food. This means that they consume more calories, fats and sugar and fewer healthy foods.

