

Positive Talk Creates Confident Kids

Children who feel confident about themselves are more likely to do well in school. To help your child feel confident:

Use positive words and tone of voice when you talk to your child.

Tell your child daily that you love and value him. Show that you love him with hugs and kisses.

Praise your child often for being good.

