

READING - GO TO THE LIBRARY

Parent Messages

- Parents can promote early literacy skills by taking children to the library. Visits to the library can help children gain a love of reading.
- There are resources and services at the library for both children and adults.

Parent Skills

- Makes visits to the library a part of family routine.
- Inquires about and participates in children's services such as story time.